YOUR GUIDE TO SOTOGRANDE

While Marbella is known for glitz and glamour, Sotogrande epitomizes the essence of sophistication and tranquillity.

Sotogrande is the largest privately owned residential development in Andalusia. Originally a gated community, it is located in the municipality of San Roque, Cadiz and is composed of a 25 square kilometre stretch from the Mediterranean Sea 25 kilometres east of Gibraltar back into the foothills of the Sierra Almenara providing contrasting views of sea, hills, cork forests and green fairways, including the Rock of Gibraltar and Morocco.

Some of the richest and most powerful families of Spain, Russia and the United Kingdom reside in Sotogrande. Current and past regulars and inhabitants of Sotogrande include Peter Caruana, former Chief Minister of Gibraltar, Fabian Picardo, current Chief Minister of Gibraltar, Tony Blair, Emilio Botin and Louis Alphonse, Duke of Anjou.

YOUR GUIDE TO SOTOGRANDE

Sotogrande is well known as an architectural showcase on the Costa del Sol, with styles varying from the traditional Andalucian to mid century modern, all the way through to 21st century design.

A specially built man-made lagoon is part of the newest developments in Sotogrande within the La Reserva gated residential community in the hills of Sotogrande. Dubbed as the only inland beach of its kind “The Beach” is a 3,252 square metre water oasis surrounded by 2,800 square metres of artificial sandy beaches.

La Reserva offers its residents private access to an 18 hole golf course, a tennis centre and a luxury inland beach club with a stunning freshwater lagoon. All sitting on a hill overlooking the Mediterranean sea.

THE COSTA DEL GOLF

There are over 70 golf courses on the Costa del Sol located between Torre del Mar and Sotogrande, the largest concentration anywhere in Europe. Since golf first arrived in the area nearly a century ago, its popularity has grown to the extent that the Costa del Sol now ranks as a top golf destination world-wide and is firmly recognised as the Home of winter golf in Europe.

A scenic view of a golf course at sunset. The foreground shows a green fairway with a sand trap. In the background, there are rolling hills covered in dense green trees and a stone wall. The sun is low on the horizon, casting a warm glow over the scene. A teal text box is centered over the image.
